FROZEN FOODS

Premium Quality Vegetables, Fruits, Blends and Purees

An Oregon Potato Family Company

Over 100 years and still growing.

Better Color, Better Flavor, Better Value!

It takes a quality organization to consistently grow, pack and deliver quality frozen vegetables and fruits to markets all over the country and around the world, year after year. Since 1912, National Frozen Foods has enjoyed a reputation for excellence in both Pacific Northwest produce products and superior customer service.

It's a reputation built on pride in product, a commitment to people and a dedication to customer service. So, when you choose National Frozen Foods products, you can be assured of receiving the highest quality frozen vegetables and fruits available, and a commitment to serving your business that is second to none.

Quality so good you'll put your name on it.

National Frozen Foods is the nation's premier producer of private-brand frozen vegetables, blends and fruits, thanks to the relationships we've cultivated over our 100+ years in the business.

Emphasizing quality and food safety, we understand your customers are our customers. That's why we're committed to always delivering products good enough to carry your good name.
